The Herald, one of the wealthiest and most popular of the Chicago dailies, discontinued its weekly edition because, with a circulation of 20,000, it failed to pay the expense of publication at $1 a year. It was but a trifle larger than the other papers and being made up of matter from the daily it cost nothing for type-setting. Yet there are plenty of people who think that the country paper, with only a small circulation compared with the weekly Herald, can afford to furnish their paper at $1 a year. A country paper at $1.00 or $2 per annum is cheaper than wheat at 50 cents a bushel.

AN EARLY MORNING BLAZE.
About 4 o'clock Tuesday morning Walter Peters came up town to go to his work in the Senate Steam Bakery and when in front of Chas. F. Noble's grocery noticed a blaze about the middle of the store. He at once ran to the residence of W. W. Smith and notified him. Mr. Smith fell into his clothes and rushing to the store burst the back door open and securing water put out the fire, which was fast making headway. About $100 worth of goods were burned and damaged by fire and water, but it was a close call for the entire block. Had the fire started half an hour earlier Noble's grocery, the Senate Steam Bakery, McFadden & Price's drug store, Daniels & Hartley's real estate office, the NEWS building and several other buildings would now be in ashes.

Mr. Peters should have a medal for being an early riser.

YOUR WIFE NOT TO BLAME.
It is your fault if the bread is not good. Do not buy a poor flour and expect good bread. There is but one flour on this market that will always give satisfaction and there is but one place you can buy it. It is only manufactured in one place in the state by an automatic blending process especially constructed for the purpose. We guarantee it to make more bread, whiter bread, cleaner and better bread than any other on the market. This language is rather strong, but the flour will back it up. Its name is Magnet Patent. We have a second grade of the same company's flour called Diadem, which equals any straight grade flour manufactured. Remember, it is guaranteed; money refunded if any complaint is made. It is for sale only at Fred L. Erwin's, the new grocery, first door north of postoffice.

BOUND OVER.
